The advertisement features a black background with the text 'High Energy Nanosecond Lasers' in a white, italicized font at the top left. Below the text, there is a photograph of a laser system consisting of a control rack on the left and a large, rectangular laser unit on the right. The laser unit is illuminated from below, casting a bright yellow glow. To the right of the laser unit, there is a list of features: 'Energies to 1kJ', 'Variable Pulsewidths', and 'Intuitive GUI for system control'. At the bottom right, the 'Continuum' logo is displayed in a red, serif font, with the website address 'www.continuumlasers.com' and a play button icon below it.
